OTTAWA GREET'S PRESIDENT ON FENCE-MENDING VISIT

GOLDFINE IS GRANTED A ONE-DAY POSTPONEMENT BY HARRIS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Harris subcommittee granted Bernard Goldfine a one-day postponement in testimony today but warned, "We are going to expect cooperation."

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), chairman of the subcommittee investigating the gift-giving Goldfine's relations with federal officials, gave this reply to a request from Goldfine's attorneys for a postponement.

Attorney Roger Robb said his Boston millionaire client came to Washington Sunday to prepare to answer committee interrogators again but had gone into "a state of physical and mental exhaustion" after a chain of spectacular events Monday.

Senate Probers Turn Spotlight on Chicago Terrorism

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate racketeers probe today into hearings on Chicago's racketeer-harbored restaurant industry, against the background of an old San Francisco murder.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) lined up big-time gangsters, the operators of some plush Chicago dining spots and labor union officials as major witnesses.

With this new set of hearings the committee seeks to portray in detail what it charged in last week's preliminary hearings—that a highly organized criminal syndicate under discipline of the Mafia Black Hand mob is gaining dangerous power over legitimate industries and labor unions from coast to coast.

There will be testimony about the still unsolved 1947 slaying of Nick De John, a Chicago racketeer who had moved into Dallas and San Francisco, allegedly financed by loans from "the syndicate."

De John's body was found in the trunk of his car, parked in a San Francisco residential area. He had been garroted with wire, allegedly because he failed to pay back his loans.

Two Killed, Four Injured in Crash In Mercer County

MERCER, Pa. (AP)—Two autos collided on Route 322 near here Monday, killing Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Catlin of Franklin and Mrs. Lulu Ellis, 62, of Pittsburgh. Four other persons were injured.

All of the injured were listed in fair condition today in Grove City Hospital.

They are Clare Catlin, 30, son of the Catlins; Colorado Ellis, 62, husband of Mrs. Ellis; and Thomas Freeze, 70, and James Ratliff, 49, both of Pittsburgh.

State police said the accident occurred in the vicinity of Sandy Lake. They said the Ellises, Freeze and Ratliff, all Negroes, were riding in one auto and the Catlins in the other.

Troopers reported that the Catlin car apparently swung over to the wrong side of the road, smashing into Ellis' auto.

TERMITES INVADE WALL
ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Ashland's floodwall has been invaded by termites. The insects have eaten away a cork-like filler from the joints in an eight-block-long section of the wall. Floodwall Supt. L. E. McGuire says it will cost about $5,000 to replace the filler. About 290 seams will be refilled with termite-repellant sealer.

Only Plebiscite Needed to Make Alaska the 49th State

WASHINGTON (AP)—Statehood for Alaska now is up to the Alaskans themselves. And President Eisenhower almost forgot it.

He signed the Alaskan statehood bill Monday and commented: "Okay, now that's 49 states."

But he quickly corrected himself and said, "No, maybe we don't do that until the plebiscite."

That was a reference to a provision in the bill requiring all Alaskans to vote whether they accept immediate state-

NEW YORK (AP)—Ruel H. Smith of Warren, Pa., has been elected Grand Esteemed Leading Knight of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks. He was unopposed.

Investigators Turn Inquiry to Ransom Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Rackets probers heard testimony today that the old Capone mob has taken over "innumerable" Chicago labor unions, but that only failure and murder resulted in a mobster attempt to move in on Texas.

The grim story came in testimony from Lt. George Butler of the Dallas, Tex., police and Virgil W. Peterson, operating director of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Peterson told of "a feeling of helplessness" by rank and file union members in racketeered unions.

The testimony kicked off a new set of hearings in which the Special Senate Committee is investigating Chicago's racketeered restaurant industry, and alleged crooked labor union dealings.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee is turning its spotlight on a $300,000 mystery—that of the missing Greenleaf ransom money.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy has confirmed a report by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat Monday that a member of St. Louisians who figured in the sensational kidnap-murder case during its missing money phase have been subpoenaed to appear before the committee.

The $300,000 is part of $600,000 that 6-year-old Bobby Greenleaf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenleaf of Kansas City, paid kidnappers Carl Austin Hall and Bonnie Brown Hedy in 1953. The other half was recovered.

Kennedy said committee investigators have developed information that some union officials might know something (Turn to Page Seven)

De Gaulle Makes Token Payment to Algeria Colonels

PARIS (AP)—Premier de Gaulle made a token payment to the French colonials in Algeria today, appointing Jacques Soustelle to his Cabinet as information minister.

Soustelle was the political brains behind the Algerian colonials' May 13 revolt against the Paris government which brought de Gaulle to power. His omission from the Cabinet had been a sore spot with the French Algerians.

The colonials still probably will not be entirely satisfied. They want Soustelle named resident minister for Algeria, figuring they could count on him to preserve their dominance of the government in Algeria and to block any compromise with the Moslem rebels.

So far de Gaulle has been his own minister for the North African territory, using Gen. Raoul Salan—the military commander in chief in Algeria—as his man on the spot.

Some Delay Being Encountered in Captives' Release

GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP)—Poor communications are reported delaying release of North Americans still held captive by Fidel Castro's rebels. Thirty-three Americans and one Canadian are still held.

Rear Adm. R. B. Ellis, commander of the U.S. naval base on Guantanamo Bay, said he was told there had been no hitch in the release arrangements. But the men are scattered among rebel camps in the east Cuban mountains and jungles, and it is taking much time to collect them to be picked up at one point.

Ellis had been dispatching a helicopter to make the pickup when a Navy plane spied white cloth marker panels laid out in jungle clearings.

Lt. Cmdr. John V. Gorman of Grand Pass, Mo., ferried out three Americans Monday, bringing to 16 the number of men released. One of those flown out, James F. Stephens Jr. of Edmond, Okla., said, "there was no one else at the landing point when I left."

AIRMEN ARE FLOWN BACK TO GERMANY

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Nine weary U. S. airmen arrived by plane today from Iran after being held captive in the Soviet Union for 10 days.

Hugs, kisses, and tears from members of their families greeted the airmen as they stepped from the four-engine plane that brought them from Tehran to this U. S. air base.

Air force officers shielded them from reporters. A news conference will be held Wednesday.

Their plane was forced down in Soviet Armenia by Soviet jet fighters after it had strayed across the border on a flight from Germany.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Air Force said today two Russian jet fighters shot down the American transport plane which crash-landed in Soviet Armenia June 27. Five of the nine airmen parachuted. Four others rode the burning plane to the crash landing. The Air Force said the red fighters made another firing attack on the crippled transport as it was heading in for its landing.

The nine men were released by Russian authorities to American officials Monday, returning to their home station at Teheran.

By PARVIS RAHIN
TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Nine U.S. airmen were flown back to Germany today in good condition after spending 10 days in Soviet hands. Red jet fighters had forced their plane down when it flew over Soviet Armenia.

The nine were released at the Soviet-Iranian frontier Monday, tired but cheerful. American officials brought them to the U.S. Embassy here for a brief rest, baths and dinner and then put (Turn to Page Seven)

Employment Rise Is Reflected in Federal Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that employment rose to 64,981,000 and unemployment to 5,437,000 in June as a flood of job-hunting students hit the labor market.

The jobless rise of 533,000 from May sent the unemployed total to a peak for any month since before World War II—a 17-year high. Employment soared by 920,000 over May.

The data were reported in the regular monthly survey of the Commerce and Labor Departments.

Probably the most important feature of the report was that manufacturing industries, worst hit by the recession, shared in the job rise for the first time after a year and a half of steady decline.

This, coupled with a sharp rise of six-tenths of an hour in the average factory work week, represented solid gains on the recession front.

MURDER OVER $3.50
LOVINGTOWN, N.M. (AP)—Sam Burks, 50, was charged with murder in the shooting death of Jack Jacobs, 43. Deputy Sheriff W. F. White said Burks told him the two men quarreled over a debt Burks said Jacobs refused to pay. The debt was $3.50.

New Type Survey Is Started in Dauphin

HARRISBURG (AP)—Are they happy in Lower Paxton Township? If so, why?

This is what residents of the township are being asked in a questionnaire circulated by the Board of Supervisors.

"I admit this type of survey is rather unusual," Robert R. Roebuck, chairman of the supervisors said. "But it will help in making future plans for the growing township."

Rheumatic Fever Victim to Display Candy Stripe Colors In Soap Box Derby Saturday

Featured in the accompanying photo by Saylor is Mrs. Laura Beckley, present chairman of the Candy Strippers at Warren General Hospital.

The Candy Strippers, in their first major project outside the hospital, are sponsoring young David Heimann, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Heimann of 121 N. Parker street in the coming Soap Box Derby, Saturday, July 12. Young David, rheumatic fever victim, will proudly display the bright candy stripe colors and the name of the teen-age volunteers across his sleek racer.

Vice President Throws Out First Ball in All-Star Game

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP)—New York righthander Bob Turley, 12-3, and Milwaukee southpaw Warren Spahn, 10-5, top winners of their respective leagues, were the opposing starting pitchers as the American and National leagues clashed in the 25th annual all-star baseball game today.

A crowd of approximately 498,000 jammed the huge Memorial Stadium in hot, humid weather as the temperature reached 90. It was cloudy but there was no immediate threat of rain.

Just before the game, Vice President Richard Nixon was introduced to the crowd and threw out the first ball from a box behind first base.

The thermometer was bobbing around the 85 degree mark and the humidity was way up to 73 per cent while the favored American League squad took batting practice.

Gus Triandos, the lone Baltimore Oriole in the starting lineup, drew a rousing cheer when he blasted several pitches toward the left field fence.

National First
Mays slashed Turley's first pitch off the third base bag for a single.

Sidner lined to Jensen.

On a hit and run play, Musial singled to right, Mays reaching third. It was Musial's 17th hit, breaking his own All-Star record.

Aaron fled to Mantle in deep left center, Mays scoring after the catch as Musial held first.

Banks was hit on the back by a pitch.

Thomas walked, filling the bases.

Turley's first pitch to Mazerowski bounced off Triandos' outstretched mitt and Musial scored on the wild pitch as the other runners advanced a base.

Mazerowski lined to Cerv in left.

Two runs, two hits, no errors, two left (both runs earned).

Second Night for Derby Inspections

As Soap Box Derby Day approaches, inspections are into the second day, getting the cars checked according to the rigid standards set up by the rule and control committee.

A field of 41 drivers is expected to race on the McPherson street speedway Saturday, with boys competing in both class A and B. According to Inspections Chairman, Elmer Mellander, nine racers were successfully inspected last night, and impounded in the Beatty Junior High Gym where they will be on exhibition to the public Friday night from 7 until 9.

Clifford Betts, president of the Betts Machine Company has accepted an invitation to be guest speaker for the Derby Awards Banquet to be held at seven o'clock Saturday evening at Beatty Cafeteria.

Reputed Head of Mafia Arrested by Narcotics Agents

NEW YORK (AP)—Vito Genovese, reputed head of the Mafia, was arrested Monday night by Treasury Department narcotics agents.

Also seized as the government began a major crackdown on underworld bigshots was Vincent L. Gigante, a lower-echelon hoodlum acquitted last May of the attempted murder of racketeer kingpin Frank Costello.

Genovese and Gigante were arrested on the basis of a sealed federal grand jury indictment charging a narcotics conspiracy.

U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams, in announcing the arrests, said the identities of others named in the indictment would become known when the indictment was opened today.

Genovese, 61, was picked up at his Atlantic Highlands, N. J., home.

Genovese has long been known to be at or near the top of the Mafia, the worldwide syndicate spawned in Sicily many years ago.

INDIANS HAVE POLIO
BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Six Blackfoot Indians have been stricken by polio during the past week, and Indian Health Service officials fearful of an epidemic ordered a mass vaccination campaign. Dr. Charles S. McCammon said plans are under way to inoculate some 4,000 of the Blackfoot reservation's 4,500 Indians.

Committee Starts Hearings on Cuts In Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democrats divided today on the issue of restoring funds cut by the House when it passed a $3,078,000,000 foreign aid money bill.

With the Appropriations Committee beginning hearings on the measure, Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) called for increases to bring the total near the $3,675,000,000 ceiling Congress previously fixed for new mutual assistance money in the current fiscal year.

But Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said that if an expected move develops within the committee to reduce the amount even below the House-approved total, he will support it.

And Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-SC) said in a separate interview that if the committee does not make further reductions, he will be ready with fund-cutting amendments when the bill comes up for full Senate consideration.

Eisenhower has contended that the House was taking "reckless risks" with American security in reducing the bill substantially below the $3,900,000,000 he originally asked in new foreign aid money.

EXECUTIVE WILL CONFER WITH CANADA'S MINISTER ON ECONOMIC PROBLEMS

OTTAWA (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles arrived by air today for a fence-mending visit.

The President's plane, the Columbine III, landed at 9:56 a. m. after a two-hour flight from Washington.

Top Canadian officials were on hand to greet the presidential party, which included Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Dulles.

The President's three-day stay north of the border is aimed at smoothing out irritations which have been disturbing the traditional friendship between the two great North American nations.

In conferences with Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, who invited him to make the trip, Eisenhower will explore economic and international issues.

The aim is closer understanding and some assurance that no insurmountable troubles divide the two nations.

There has been a growing resentment in Canada against the United States and its policies—a feeling that the neighbor to the south ignores Canadian problems or treats them in a casual, off-hand manner.

There have been some rumblings in the United States that Canada is shirking on providing manpower for Western defense.

Many Canadians, for their part, complain that the United States is too much inclined to say "no" to the Soviet Union and to decline to negotiate with the Soviets.

Mainly, Canada is concerned about economic issues. It worries a bit about its trade deficit with the United States, heavy American investments dominating numerous Canadian industries, import limits on Canadian oil, U. S. sales of wheat abroad, the American boycott on trade with Red China, and the threat of higher tariffs on zinc and lead.

In the United States, the Northwest is disturbed over a possibility of Canadian diversion of Columbia River waters.

Eisenhower will stay three days in the Canadian capital. Secretary of State Dulles and his Canadian counterpart Sidney E. Smith will sit in on at least part of the talks. So will other officials.

Chicago Combatants Use Bow and Arrow

CHICAGO (AP)—Police broke up a fight Monday night between two men, one armed with a knife, his opponent with a bow and arrows.

Sgt. Victor Carlson and Policeman John Curtin said the trouble started when Charles Bateo, 37, arrived to visit his former wife Dorothy, 34, at the home of Elden Carlson 27. Carlson and Bateo, police said, started arguing and Bateo drew a knife.

Carlson got his bow and three steel-tipped arrows. As Bateo started to drive away from Carlson's North Side home, Carlson hit Bateo's car with one arrow. At that time, Sgt. Carlson and Curtin drove up and took both men in. They were held for further questioning.

QUEEN INDISPOSED
LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II came down with sinus trouble accompanied by fever Monday night. The Queen, 32, has had a series of severe colds in recent months.

Brooklyn Quiz Whiz Ousted After Her 21st Appearance

NEW YORK (AP)—Elfrida von Nardoff lost $33,000 and one of her two titles Monday night.

The Brooklyn quiz whiz finally was ousted from NBC-TV's Twenty-One after 21 appearances. Robert Leicester, an assistant director of a private high school in New York, beat her 21-10. They were playing for $3,000 a point difference in their scores.

Thus, Leicester's 11-point margin of victory gave him $33,000 and the same amount was subtracted from Miss von Nardoff's previous winnings of $253,500, leaving her with $220,500.

The Brooklyn woman remains the record money winner for a single TV quiz show. Her loss to Leicester drops her total winnings below the $224,000 won by Robert Strom, an 11-year-old Bronx boy, on two different shows.

She missed the first question asked her Monday night. She correctly named the late Robert Jackson as prosecutor at the Nuremberg World War II war crimes trials and the late Martin Bormann as the Nazi leader tried in absentia at the trials.

But she hesitated between Hermann Goering and Paul Joseph Goebbels as the Nazi leader who cheated justice by committing suicide. Finally, she said Goebbels and was wrong.

Leicester answered two questions correctly to score 21 and Miss von Nardoff answered her second question correctly to score 10 points and limit her losses.

Miss von Nardoff, 32, quit her job as a personnel manager to concentrate on the show. After taxes she will keep about $50,000 of her winnings.

Congress Is Requested to Restore Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration told Congress today that unless it restores a House cut of $325,000,000 in money for overseas economic development loans, the United States "could lose the cold war by default."

Under Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon suggested, in effect, that Congress might consider scrapping the fund entirely if it refuses the 625 million dollars President Eisenhower asked for the Development Loan Fund.

"This reduction raises a question not merely as to the scale of fund operations," he told the Senate Appropriations Committee, "but as to whether there should be a fund at all."

"It would deprive the Fund of any real prospect of achieving the purpose which Congress intended the fund to fulfill."

Dillon spoke at a closed session of the committee as the administration opened its fight to restore total cuts of $597,500,000 the House made below authorized spending previously approved by Congress in the recently-enacted foreign aid bill.

Negotiations To End Newspaper Strike Recessed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Negotiators for the American Newspaper Guild and the Philadelphia Inquirer, after a secret all-night meeting, have reportedly reached agreement to end a 38-day strike, it was disclosed today. The proposal will be presented to the 710 Guild members at an afternoon meeting.

Joseph Colangelo, International representative of the Guild, declined to discuss terms of the proposed settlement but said "the Guild negotiators said they would recommend its acceptance by the membership."

Joseph Colangelo, International representative of the Guild assisting the Inquirer strikers in negotiations, said "The findings would be for economy and reorganization and the membership wouldn't go for it."

Colangelo said management wants to revise the job security clause in the contract which expired June 1.

15,000 Special Antlerless Deer Licenses Allocated to The County for 1958 Season

Warren county will have an allocation of 15,000 special antlerless deer licenses in a special three-day season to follow the regular antlered deer season in December. McKean county is listed for the highest number with 16,500, and Potter county 11,000.

To some sportsmen this is an indication of a planned concentration of hunting in the three counties, considered the center of the big game section, to reduce the herds to a more satisfactory level.

Last year with a special three-day "doe" season and a complete sell out of around 15,000 special licenses a total of 2,861 antlerless deer were taken in Warren county, 3,135 in McKean and 2,560 in Potter.

The special license program has been determined as best solution yet to a controlled reduction of the deer herds. About one in every five license holder kills an antlerless deer in the three day season.

Game officials admit that some herds are wiped out—chiefly those along farm and highway areas. These are the deer that cause the most damage—but at the same time, back in the forests are herds far out of proportion to the food available. Kane anglers on the streams in early spring reported as many as five deer dead in a few feet area along small streams where they "yarded"—and died of starvation. Numerous instances of carcasses of three or four deer within a few feet of each other evidenced the natural reduction of herds. The weak and wounded die off through the winter—but the new spring crop comes along strong each year with a third problem increasing—the ratio of doe to male deer. The ratio is far out of proportion—but is much better than a few years ago when surveys disclosed a ratio ranging up to 30 to 1.

Deer now are being seen more frequently along highways—some of the doe with this year's fawns. That the herd is still out of proportion to food has been strongly emphasized by the forest industry and the U. S. and State Forest services. Many public plantations of seedlings have been wiped out by deer browsing.

The State Game Commission has made numerous changes in the game seasons this year, chiefly on recommendation of

MIKE CULLITON

Early in November, Mike Culliton, 16, left his home and parents in Clarence, New York, because he mistakenly thought he faced prosecution and parental wrath over a traffic ticket. The traffic charge has been dismissed because of his age, and his grief-stricken parents say he is forgotten and have broadcast appeals that he telephone home.

There is reason to believe that Mike may be in the Warren area. Mature for his years, Mike stands 6 feet 1 inch and weighs 165 pounds. He has black wavy hair, brown eyes, medium complexion, heavy broad and deep voice. If his whereabouts are known, please contact Times-Mirror immediately.

Mike risks serious trouble from a rheumatic fever condition unless he gets penicillin daily and may be unaware of the medication's importance, his distressed mother says.

He has a great love for horses and ranches. It may be possible that Mike will seek work on a farm or gasoline station.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael K. Culliton, "Sun Shadows" Farm, Goodrich Road, Clarence, New York.

3-month Sentence for Disposing of Infant

A 19-year-old girl who formerly lived at RD 1, Warren, was given a suspended sentence of three months in Monroe County, N. Y., penitentiary for concealing the birth of a child when she appeared in Jamestown City Court Monday.

Eunice Stoddard, who gave her Jamestown address as 47 Foote Avenue, told the judge that the bartender at the notorious Linqust Grill on Harrison Street in Jamestown paid for her apartment and food in return for her "hustling" drinks in the taproom. She admitted to the judge she "hustled" her way into pregnancy about October and gave birth to a stillborn infant at midnight, April 12.

The body was disposed of in two large paper bags in garbage cans two blocks from the girl's apartment, according to her statement.

Judge Lester W. Berglund released the girl in custody of her sister and suggested that part of her year's probation be that she not be permitted to return to Jamestown.

The court case grew out of the cop kicking incident at Linqust Grill about a month ago. The Anderson brothers and Sam Snyder are awaiting trial in late summer at Mayville County Jail.

Joe Vilardo, Linqust Grill owner, appeared in court during yesterday's session and voluntarily surrendered the joint's license to operate a dance hall. Its liquor license is still in effect.

Boy Bicyclist Hit, Three Cars Collide

A boy bicyclist was struck and a three-car collision occurred on borough streets Monday afternoon.

At 12:30 p. m., 9-year-old Darrel Robinault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robinault, 35 Clark street, was struck down on his bike as he attempted to turn across the path of a westbound car near his home.

He was X-rayed at Warren General Hospital and treated for cuts on his arms and knees. Driver of the car, Thomas R. Foley, 29, of 128 Conewango avenue, was not held.

At 5:02 p. m. near Central Fire Station on Third avenue, Matt Tierney, 59, of Bradford stopped, as he proceeded west, to swing left into an alleyway. John R. Mathews, 40, of 3 Maple Place, North Warren, stopped behind him.

Next car behind was operated by Beverly Johnson, 26, of RD 1, Pittsfield. She said her foot slipped off the brake and hit the accelerator. Damages were estimated at $100 to her car, $80 to Mathews', $40 to Tierney's.

Latest list of operator license suspensions released by the Bureau of Highway Safety includes these counties: Alvin Hainer of 419 Water street and Norman R. Arthur of RD 2, Akeley, and Duane Green of 37 Locust street.

DIES IN WEST

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tuley, Sugar Grove RD 3, have received word of the death of their son-in-law, Claud F. Blum, in Santa Rosa, Calif., on July 6. No further details have been learned.

KIWANIS OUTING

Local and area Kiwanians are looking forward to the joint family picnic to be held by Youngville, Warren and Kane clubs on July 16 at Chapman Dam State Park. There is every indication for a large turnout, according to the various presidents, Charles Seekings of Youngville, Paul Miller of Kane, and Monroe Marshall of Warren. Picnic chairmen are Wyllys Johnson, Youngville; Joe Galbo, Kane; Bob Anstadt, Warren. It is recalled that Warren Kiwanians founded both the Youngville and Kane groups.

DRIVE-IN HELD UP

The Sunset Drive-in Theatre near Waterford Sunday night was the scene of the area's third holdup at drive-ins since they opened in the spring. The drive-in, located on Route 97, a half mile east of Waterford, is owned by Alden W. Phelps. Mrs. Phelps told police two young-looking bandits drove up to the window of the ticket office with handkerchiefs held to their faces and one, armed with a revolver, forced his way into the booth. He demanded the night's receipts from Judy Phelps, 15, cashier and daughter of the owner. An usher was also present at the time and he too was held at gunpoint. The pair, both white, were believed to be about 18 or 19 years of age, Mrs. Phelps said. The loss was estimated at about $100 by the owner. The robbers made good their escape in a light green 1954 Ford.

ERIE ATTORNEY DIES

Erie News: Attorney Maurice J. Coughlin, 57, assistant city solicitor and prominent Democratic leader, suffered a fatal heart attack Monday afternoon at his office, 502 Masonic Temple Building, 8th and Peach. A fire department squad worked 20 minutes in an unsuccessful effort to revive him. A member of the law firm of Shreve, Sennett, Coughlin and McCarthy, the attorney was stricken at 3:42 p. m. while talking with two clients. Coughlin, who lived at 4014 Cochran, served as city solicitor from 1948 to 1950 under the administration of Sherman Hickey, a boyhood friend. Coughlin had been assistant city solicitor since January, 1952. At the time of the 1954 bribery scandal involving Thomas Flatley, mayor at that time, Coughlin refused a mayoralty appointment. Arthur J. Gardner then was named to the post.

DOUBLE SQUEEZE FOR BIG SLAM

How would you play today's hand at seven spades? Don't reply, "under an assumed name," because South's bidding is just mildly aggressive, not downright insane.

and ace of spades. If spades break you spread the hand; as it is you go after the hearts. If hearts break evenly nothing can hurt you. Actually, they break four-two but again nothing hurts you since East, who holds the four hearts, also holds the last trump and has to follow suit helplessly while you ruff out your heart loser.

The play illustrated by Watson is one that is well worth knowing and an example from recent tournament play will be given tomorrow, but there is a lot more interest to this hand. With a club opening only, Watson's play will make the grand slam. With the actual diamond opening, the hand can be made on a double squeeze.

Just cash six spades, discarding one card of each suit from dummy. Then take the second high diamond, whereupon East must go down to a singleton club in order to keep the hearts guarded. Now three rounds of hearts squeeze West. On the last lead he must either go down to a singleton club or throw away his last diamond, whereupon dummy will be able to make a little club or diamond, depending on West's play.

Pays to Advertise Charleroi Church Rector Declares

CHARLEROI, Pa. (AP) — It pays to advertise. Ask the Rev. Joseph Witkowski, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Mr. Witkowski, perturbed over attendance at his church, placed this advertisement in the lost and found section of his hometown newspaper: "Lost or strayed—hope not stolen, a few hundred of the Lord's sheep. Not seen for several weeks. Please return tomorrow morning to the Green Pastures of St. Mary's Church in Charleroi where a table will be prepared and the cup will be running over. No questions will be asked." Results:—The best Sunday we ever had on a holiday weekend, said the minister. "It was very good," he added. "We had some persons who hadn't been to church since Easter. About 200 persons attended."

YOUNGVILLE

YOUNGVILLE — Broken-straw Garden Club held its regular meeting at the home of Ed Carlson and his brother at Lakewood, N. Y., President Lillian Elghemey conducting the brief business session following a picnic supper. Discussion was favorable for joining the State Federation, but no definite action was taken because of the absence of a number of members. Mr. Carlson showed slides of scenes in and around St. Petersburg, Fla., which he took last winter, also of some local scenes. All were reminded the August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Mead.

Betty Husted, Wooster, O., has arrived to spend her summer vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Husted. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hayter and granddaughter, Linda Lavender, Clinton, Mass., were weekend guests of Mrs. Hayter's sister, Mrs. R. H. Knapp, and Dr. Knapp. Mrs. Hayter will be the house guest of Mrs. Knapp for several weeks. Birthday Club was entertained by Mrs. Frances Coan. A picnic dinner was enjoyed at one o'clock, after which the time was spent informally with chatting and sewing.

Mrs. Dorothy Retterer will be on vacation from July 3 until July 14, and Youngville Cleaners will be closed during that period. Visiting his mother in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are Mr. and Mrs. Robert York and children. Also on a trip to Florida are the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Horner.

Shirley Egbert is on a two week vacation, part of which will be spent in the Adirondacks of New York. Mrs. J. Norman Holder, who has been seriously ill for a number of weeks, is convalescing at the home of her mother, at Ripley, N. Y.

If one may judge by the number of youngsters going up North Main street these last few hot days, the swimming pool must be a busy place.

SHEFFIELD

SHEFFIELD — The second group of Loyalty Bible Class of Bethany Lutheran church will entertain the class at the home of Mrs. Blenda Hinkley and Trae Johnson Tuesday evening for a 6:30 lawn supper, if weather permits. If not it will be held in the church. Mrs. Esther Nelson, Mrs. Agnes Whyte, and Mabel Nelson spent the holiday weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thrush at Endeavor. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Olson have been guests of Mrs. Barr's sister, Mrs. Charles Ritz, Sr., of Pittsburgh. They were met there by Karl Barr, Philadelphia, who returned home with them for his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mull Swanson, Conneaut, Ohio, are vacationing with Mrs. Swanson's mother, Mrs. Bertha Olson. Tommy Pastrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pastrick, a sophomore in high school, is being sponsored by the Conservation camp at junior camp until July 19.

ON TO HERSHEY—Pretty Winnie Lee Hogan, who lives on a 118-acre farm near Saegertown, Crawford County, was the first regional winner of the "Queen of the Furrow" contest. She will compete against nine other regional finalists in Hershey, August 15. The winner will reign over the National Plowing Matches and Conservation Exposition, also at Hershey, August 21 and 22. The new area Queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hogan of Saegertown. The couple have six other children in the family, Dianne and Dane, Emy, Ray, Bill and Mona. Winnie is a member of the National Honor Society; Future Teachers of America; treasurer of the Future Homemakers of America and for five years was a cheerleader for the Saegertown Area High School. She was also the Cherry Pie Queen for the High School, and she is preparing now to enter Indiana State Teachers College. More than 500 girls are now entered in the state-wide "Queen of the Furrow" contest which is sponsored by the Soil Conservation Districts; Vocational Agriculture, and the American Fence Dealers.

BOYLE'S COMMENT

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—If you have a good three-act play collecting dust in your trunk, now is the time to take it out and storm Broadway.

But it has to be good. "The theater today is wide open," said Audrey Wood, one of the nation's top theatrical agents. "There's a tremendous need for new talent. If you have any kind of talent at all, it sticks out—it cries out to be helped."

Miss Wood, who looks like a perky, blue-eyed, auburn-haired visiting schoolteacher, is little known to the playgoing public. But she is a real power in the theater. She has helped put between 80 and 100 plays on the boards here, including some of the most famous of the last generation.

For 17 years Miss Wood and her husband, Bill Lieblich, ran their own theatrical talent agency. Four years ago they sold out to the Music Corp. of America, which promptly found out it needed Miss Wood to handle the talent it had acquired.

Broadway gossip is that MCA paid half a million dollars for the Lieblich agency, and still pays Miss Wood about $1,000 a week for her services.

She represents such playwrights as Tennessee Williams, William Inge, Robert Anderson, Carson McCullers, Kanin and Dorothy and Dubose Hayward.

Among other theater celebrities she serves as agent are Shirley Booth, Leslie Caron, Siobhan McKenna, Michael Redgrave and Ben Gazzara.

Miss Wood said that the chief art of her job consists in getting "the right play to the right producers at the right moment."

"Very often a writer doesn't come in with a play. He comes in with two-thirds of a play. You have to have valid critical ability, and he has to be willing to listen to your suggestions," she says.

"If an established playwright comes to me, I still have to tell him, 'I've got to be able to talk to you as if you were just a new boy from Dubuque.'"

Miss Wood has been notably successful in creating personal loyalty to her among some of the world's most temperamental types.

"The ideal way to handle a writer is to be there when he needs you—and not be there when he doesn't need you," she said.

One of the great needs of the theater today, she believes, is some way to endow talented young writers during the struggling period when they are mastering their craft.

"A real writer isn't ruined by help," she said firmly. "In all my years in the theater I've never seen any young writer given that much money."

First city to have a public defender was Los Angeles, Calif., where one was appointed in 1914.

National Plowing Contest Planned For August 19-24

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The 16th national plowing contest and conservation exposition, described as the world series of agriculture, will be held here Aug. 19-24.

Eighty farm tractors, each pulling two rubber-tired farm wagons, will be used to transport visitors through a 2,300-acre area of the Hershey farms where 30 conservation demonstrations will be in operation.

Gov. Leader will pay tribute to Pennsylvania's multi-billion dollar farming industry in an address at Hershey stadium. He also is scheduled to tour the exposition, present an award to the national champion plowman and attend a plowman's banquet.

Master sod-busters from 12 to 15 states are expected to compete Aug. 21 for the national contour plowing title. The national level land plowing champion will be selected Aug. 22.

The activities will begin Aug. 19 with the state plowing contest. County champions will compete for state titles and the right to enter the national events.

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

NEW YORK (AP)—Lucy's little Ricky, born on television by deliberate coincidence with Lucille Ball's own son, is probably broadcasting's most famous child. A close second, however, was the infant due in the Robinson Peepers household when the Wally Cox show disappeared forever three years ago.

Like Lucille Ball, the heroine of Mr. Peepers was expecting a child in real life when she was playing an expectant mother on television. Unlike Miss Ball, however, Patricia Benoit in real life was way ahead of her TV part.

"When Mr. Peeper stopped," she explains, "his child was not due to be born for some time. They didn't even reveal the Peepers were going to have a baby until about four months before my own child's birth. We certainly had some problems with camera angles."

In the past three years, Pat Benoit (pronounced Ben-wah) has been seen infrequently on television, but she has been a very busy young woman. In private life Mrs. Peter Swift, wife of a magazine executive, she is now the mother of Jerry, 3, and Nicholas, 7 months, and has had roles in two Broadway shows.

Drop Revealed in Index of Prices To State Farmers

HARRISBURG (AP)—A drop of 6 points in the index of prices received by Pennsylvania farmers was reported today by the State Agriculture Department. The report covered the month ended June 15.

The Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service said the index for all farm products, including dairy, also decreased 6 points but still was 21 points higher than a year ago.

The Commonwealth's index for farm products other than dairy dipped to 235 per cent of the 1910-14 base as Pennsylvania farmers received lower prices for wheat, barley, hay, potatoes, steers, and heifers, calves and milk cows.

Pennsylvania farmers received higher prices in mid-June for corn, buckwheat, beef cattle and hogs. Hog prices averaged $22.80 per hundred pounds and were the highest since August, 1954.

Corn advanced 5 cents per bushel to average $1.32, buckwheat was up 5 cents per bushel to average $1.25 and hogs rose an average of 50 cents per hundred-weight. Price advances also were recorded for soybeans, broilers and wool.

SOAP BOX DERBY NEXT!

With the annual Independence Day observance sponsored so successfully by the Warren Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce a matter of history thoughts are turned to the next project of the progressive organization in cooperation with the Times-Mirror and Dan's Chevrolet—the Soap Box Derby, scheduled for next Saturday afternoon on McPherson street Downs. This will be another of the highlights of the summer season for Warren area residents.

As stated in an article Monday evening final inspections of cars started last night at Beaty Junior High School and will continue through tonight and Wednesday evenings. This is one of the activities that always attract a large number of interested parents and spectators, along with the boys.

Of special interest to the public is the announcement that the cars will be impounded Friday and placed on public exhibition at Beaty, from seven until nine in the evening.

Those in charge have been advised that the new course for the races, McPherson street, in the upper Conewango avenue section, is much better suited for the contest, since it more nearly duplicates the Derby Downs in Akron, Ohio, than does Central avenue, the former site.

We are grateful to the National Forge & Ordnance, Sylvania Electric Products and Warren TV Corporation, along with over a score of other area business places for the valuable prizes that have been donated in connection with the Derby. Of course there will be the usual parade preceding the races, along with a preliminary program at the judges' stand.

With over forty boys entered it looks like the 1958 Warren Soap Box Derby Saturday afternoon, will outrank in interest and excitement all previous efforts. It's a foregone conclusion a record crowd will be on hand. Better make your plans now to attend. Everybody welcome! And the first arrivals will have the choicest vantage points.

Some exciting programs are being provided area youngsters who are participating in the events being staged at Warren playgrounds this season as will be noted in an article appearing on page seven of this issue. Supervisor Fred Bell and his efficient staff are to be commended.

Rogers Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
 Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just before Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip flew to Canada last Columbus Day, they were vaccinated against Asian flu, then raging in North America.

But President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, flying there today, have no such protection. There is no handy vaccine to dispel what ails Canada in its relations with the United States. Sigmund Freud might have diagnosed it as an inferiority complex. But say that in Ottawa and you'll get a cross look, if not a right cross to the jaw. Ask almost any American and he's baffled, if he's thought about it at all. Chances are he takes Canada for granted.

Eisenhower and Dulles have thought about it a great deal, especially Dulles. It's mighty disconcerting for a secretary of state, wrestling with problems in not-so-friendly places far away, to have trouble erupt next door across the unpatrolled border in friendly Canada.

Dulles has had his share of this, mostly in the economic field. Canada has complained in recent years that the United States is hurting it by dumping surplus U. S. wheat on the world market, restricting Canadian oil imports, selling Canada more than it buys, and so on.

There is also the problem of security information. The Canadian Mounties have been supplying the FBI with security data on Canadian citizens for years. But Canada threatened to stop that last year after the Senate Internal Security subcommittee published a report naming one of her diplomats. E. Herbert Norman, then Canada's ambassador to Egypt, committed suicide in Cairo after the committee said he had been active in Communist circles. Canada's indignant fury was enormous.

Eisenhower and Dulles are tackling all these problems with their Canadian counterparts at Ottawa. There is hope for progress, although the security issue is especially knotty since, under the U. S. Constitution, the executive branch can make no promises binding on the Congress.

The United States and Canada have been friendly so long that almost nobody remembers when they were enemies. American revolutionaries invaded Canada in 1775-76, took Montreal and besieged Quebec. Most Canadians are convinced Theodore Roosevelt bullied them into a disadvantageous settlement of the Alaska-Canada boundary in 1903. And some may be wondering today whether efforts might be made to acquire Canada's west coast for a land linkup with the 49th state.

It is not hard to argue for the theory of an inferiority complex. Canada's radio teeks with rock 'n' roll, Canada's television leans to I Love Lucy and similar U. S. made programs the books and even the magazines come overwhelmingly from the United States. Canadians talk like U. S. residents—those that don't talk French that is—even though they swear allegiance to Queen Elizabeth.

Many may be satisfied with the situation but others would prefer year after the Senate Internal Security subcommittee published a Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson, of Sheffield, member of the Chautauqua Lake summer colony, is still receiving congratulations over the fact that he boated the largest "musky" of the season while trolling in Chautauqua Lake off Long View Shore Sunday evening.

The fish which measured 51½ inches long and weighed 34½ pounds, (to be exact) has taken the lead in the Collins Sport Shop July contest, at Jamestown, N. Y. It was also entered in the Louis A. Wehle contest. Gibson was fishing with his wife, stepson Dick May and two grandchildren, Allen and Cathy Gibson. Other catches in the Collins contest were made by Elmer Johnson, of 389 East Main Street, Falconer, who boated a 31 pound, five ounce musky, measuring 50 inches. John Sloan, Ashville, hauled home a 52-inch, weighing 30 pounds, four ounces. Dan O'Brien, Ashville, caught a 24 pound, 12 ounce lunge at Ashville Bay. Gibson's best previous catch, about three years ago, was a 37-inch Sunday's prize was nearly three pounds heavier than the previous leader, a 31-pound, five-ounce, hooked by the Falconer man.

At this time of the year, children, like the ubiquitous dandelion, can be expected to blossom forth in the most unexpected places. With the arrival of warm weather and summer vacations, youngsters pour joyfully out of schools and houses all across the nation. In their boundless enthusiasm, many of them show poor judgment in their selection of playgrounds. For reasons known only to children, they seem to prefer mud puddles to grassy lawns and, unfortunately, busy streets to supervised play areas. The Warren County Motor Club urges all motorists to be especially watchful during the summer months because the members of the School Safety Patrols, with their familiar white Sam Brown belts, are also on vacation and will not serve as reminders that children are present.

ent. It is, therefore, every motorist's job to anticipate the actions of these youngsters, particularly when driving through urban areas. While schools have closed for the summer, the playground facilities still attract many boys and girls. School zones will continue to rate as danger areas, regardless of whether classes are in session or not. Remember, youngsters going to and from play are in a carefree mood, unmindful of the dangers of traffic. Be on the lookout for warning signs, such as a ball rolling into the street or the sound of roller skates. The Warren County Motor Club also appeals to parents to instruct their children in safe walking habits and to stress the importance of playing away from busy streets. Without such instruction, youngsters tend to follow their own instincts which may or may not be in the interest of safety.

A new, up-to-date planning handbook—"Planning, and Your Community"—has been released by the Bureau of Community Development of the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce. Secretary of Commerce William R. Davlin said the publication was designed "to provide basic information on the process of community planning and the results it should produce in a community when it is fully utilized." "Moreover," Secretary Davlin said, "we have gone a step further in this report to municipal officials. We have stressed the growing need for integrating community planning with regional planning. 'This Primer,' "takes full cognizance of the urgent need for expanding our planning concept to embrace closely related populations that are, in this day and age, separated by jurisdictional boundaries of townships, boroughs, cities and counties. In a word, the attack on urban problems—and the imminent chaos they portend—begins logically with the application of planning techniques to the entire urban area." The Department of Commerce publication, designed as a guide for municipal officials and local business men and citizens, takes note that planning "is everybody's business. . . . Government cannot do it alone."

Intermediate and senior youths from Methodist churches in Western Pennsylvania and the Jamestown District of New York will join in two camps at Wesley Woods near Grand Valley July 14-20. An intermediate adventure camp for youth of 7th-9th grades will be directed by Rev. Donald E. Bloomer of Fairview. A rustic camp for senior youth will be held simultaneously under the direction of Rev. Richard M. Burns of Kennerdell. Youth of 10th-12th grades live in tents at the rustic camp, cook their own meals, build camp equipment and grow together as Christian youth.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
 AP Business News Analyst
 NEW YORK (AP)—Easy money and the industrial slump are slowing down the rate of gain in net operating earnings of the nation's banks in many parts of the nation. A few even report making less than a year ago when tight money was boosting their profits at a smart clip.

But don't weep for them yet. Easy money also has provided a windfall. This is the rise in the price of bonds, particularly the government securities that banks like.

As a group the nation's largest banks are able to show continuing net operating gains, mostly in the range of 2 to 6 per cent. But this time last year they were topping the 1956 earnings by 10 to 20 per cent, due in large part to tight money.

This year most are showing profits from securities where last year they were reporting losses because of tight money.

Net operating earnings are what a bank makes on its interest from loans and interest from securities after deducting what it pays out in interest on deposits and in the labor and other costs observing the depositors and borrowers, and after paying income taxes.

Profit on securities comes when their prices rise and the bank is able to sell them for more than it paid for them.

Easy money in the first half of 1958 has done this by lowering the yield on government securities—which means their market price has risen although their interest rates are fixed and unchanged.

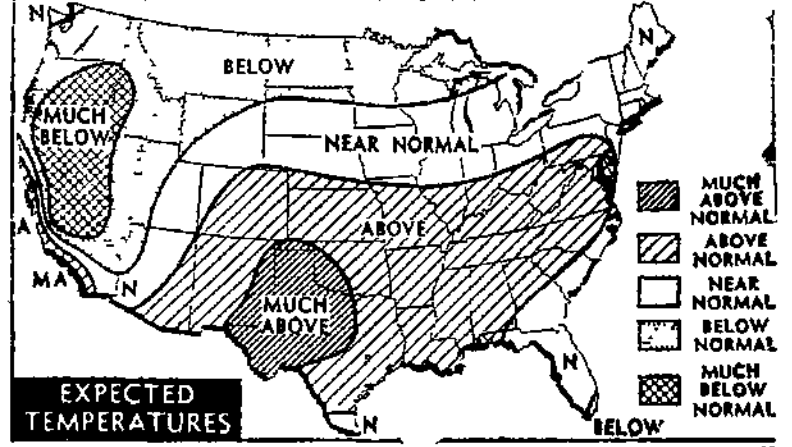

The slowdown in the rise of operating earnings—and in some cases a decline—reflects the Federal Reserve Board's easy money policy this year as a recession remedy. This is because the greater supply of money has led to a softening of interest that banks charge borrowers.

Coupled with this has been the decline in the demand of businessmen for loans. They have required less bank help in carrying inventories, which they were piling, or in financing new plants and equipment.

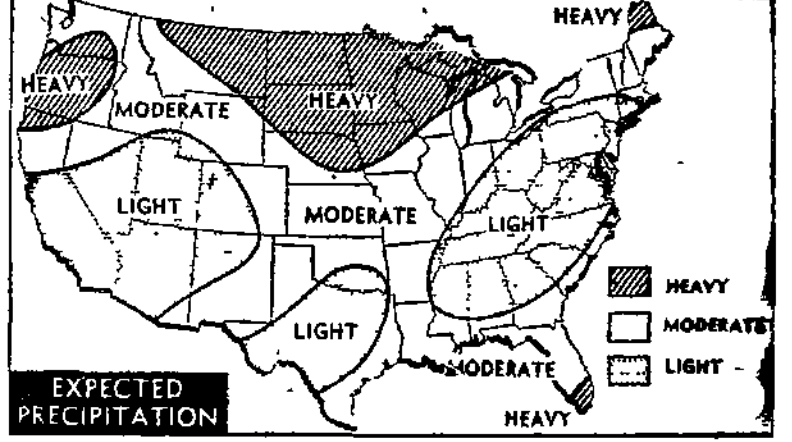

Banks costs have stayed high. Labor charges are as high as ever. And in the era of tight money the banks raised the interest rates they'd pay depositors because they needed more funds to lend. They talk about cutting these deposit and savings interest rates now, but in most cases are still paying them.

Outlook for July

The weather maps below give you the U. S. Weather Bureau's long-range forecast for the month of July. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an ESTIMATE of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Temperatures for the month of July are expected to average above seasonal normals in the southern half of the country from the Rockies to the Atlantic. Below normal temperatures are anticipated in the Plateau region and also in states along the northern border from the Great Lakes to the Pacific. Elsewhere temperatures should average not far from normal.

Rainfall during the month of July is expected to exceed normal in the Upper Mississippi Valley, Northern Plains, and Pacific Northwest. Near normal amounts are predicted over New England, the Great Lakes region, the Central Plains, and the Gulf and South Atlantic Coasts. Subnormal rainfall is anticipated for the rest of the nation.

Is Jamestown Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Burton W. Lesser, 404 Palmer street, Jamestown, N. Y., announce the June 28 marriage of their daughter, Marie Christine, to David T. Lindahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lindahl, also of Jamestown. The ceremony took place at 2:00 p. m. in Brooklyn Heights Methodist church, the Rev. Arnold W. Lundberg officiating.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph A. Agnello, in nile green silk organza over taffeta and carrying a basket of white daisies with a green cascade. Bridesmaids were Norman Hansen, Donna Swanson and Alice Foughton of Cattaraugus, gowned like Mrs. Agnello and carrying baskets of yellow lilies.

Russell Diethrick was best man; ushers were Sherwood Wright, Joseph Agnello, and Edward Lesser, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white silk organza over taffeta, the chantilly lace bodice having brief sleeves and sabrina neckline, the bouffant skirt falling floor length, with a bustle bow and chapel train. Her French illusion veil fell elbow length from a crown of pearls and iridescent sequins and her cascade bouquet was of white roses and feathered carnations.

The bride's mother chose white linen, embroidered in blue, and the bridegroom's mother was in blue lace, each with a pink rosebud corsage. The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. C. F. Christensen, 6 South Street, Warren, wore navy blue with pink accessories and was favored with a corsage of pink carnations.

The reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors, where master and mistress of ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. W. Milton Lindstrom; sides were Joanne Bennett, Lois Johnson, Oleen; Judy Swyers, Alden, N. Y.; Barbara Christensen and JoAnn Christensen, cousins of the bride; Joan Lindner and Karen Long.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Dorothy Retterer, Youngsville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, Mrs. Lawrence Miley, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett, North Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Lesser, Conneaut, O.

Also Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christensen and daughters, Barbara, and Ronald Gafner, Mrs. William Cook, Mrs. Florence Hansen, Mary Johnson, Mrs. Ervin Rader, Mrs. Walter Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Summers, Stephen and Jerry Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Drum, all of Warren.

After a wedding trip to New England, the newlyweds are at home at 14 South Butts avenue, Jamestown. Both are 1954 graduates of Jamestown High School.

—Siegfried Studio

The bride attended Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, O., and was a recent graduate of Fredonia State Teachers' College. In September, she will teach first grade at Buffalo Street School in Jamestown.

Mr. Lindahl was graduated from the Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred, is a member of the American Society of Tool Engineers, and is employed in the engineering department of Marlin-Rockwell.

Nuptials in June

Alice Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McClelland, and John Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McNutt, were united in marriage at 2:00 p. m. June 21 in Chancellors Valley EUB church, the Rev. Floyd Martin officiating in a setting of white glads, mums and snapdragons. Traditional wedding music was played preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore ballerina length white lace, styled with long sleeves and sabrina neckline in a long, moulded bodice. The full skirt over taffeta had pleated net inserted in the front and a butterfly bow at the back. Her three-tiered veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins, and her bouquet of white carnations and pom poms was centered with white rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Barbara McClelland, who wore ballerina length pink lace over taffeta and a corsage of pink carnations.

Completing the bridal party, Kirk Johnson was best man; ushers were Kenneth Knopf and Charles Frazier, cousins of the bride and bridegroom, respectively.

Mrs. McClelland chose to wear rose lace with white accessories and carnations; Mrs. McNutt selected black eyelet over pink satin, with pink accessories and carnations. Remembered with corsages were Mrs. Edith McCarthy, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ruth Knopf, grandmother of the bridegroom.

The reception for 70 guests was held in the church parlors, where the four-tiered cake, topped with miniature bridal figures and lily of the valley, was served by Mrs. Donna Fink; Mrs. JoAnn Utley was at the coffee service, and Peggy McClelland, managed the guest book. All were sisters of the bride, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Deloris McClelland, at the punch bowl.

Guests were present from Warren, Russell, Blacklick, New Kensington, Titusville, Grand Valley and Stockdale, Pa., and Ashville, N. Y.

After a brief wedding trip, the newlyweds are at home to friends in Warren RD 1. Mrs. McNutt was graduated from Warren High School in '58 and Mr. McNutt is employed by Mowrey's Atlantic Station in North Warren.

Beverly Jane Fischer Is Bride of Harold Lee Nichols in Church Rite

White glads and mums decorated Lander Methodist church June 28, when Beverly Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer, Warren RD 2, became the bride of Harold Lee Nichols, son of Mrs. James Spencer and Ralph Nichols, Jamestown, N. Y.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:00 p. m. by the Rev. John Ruggiero, with wedding music provided by Mrs. Donald Ludwick, Sugar Grove RD 3.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore French net over satin, styled with peter pan collar and long sleeves tapering over the hands. Her veil fell elbow length and she carried a bouquet of white mums and lilies of the valley. Her pearl necklace and earrings were the bridegroom's gift.

Matron of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Howard Olson of Jamestown, wearing a lavender gown and matching headress, with white accessories; the bridesmaid was the bride's cousin, Violet L. Shamon, West Hickory, who wore a blue gown and headpiece and had white accessories. Kenneth Nichols, Jamestown, was best man; ushers were Gerald Fischer, Warren; John Fischer, Jr., Conewango Valley, N. Y., and Richard Olson, Jamestown.

Wearing red rose corsages, both mothers were in blue, with white accessories.

The reception for about 45 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer, with appointments featuring vari-colored mums.

Out of town guests were Mrs. L. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Elie Shannon and family, West Hickory; Mrs. Robert Franklin, Ralph Nichols, Richard Olson, Mrs. Eleanor Bucks, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Olson, Mr. and Mrs. James Spencer, Jamestown; Robert Olson, Lakewood; Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer, Conewango Valley.

The newlyweds will make their home in Jamestown. The bride, graduate of Sugar Grove High School, is employed as secretary to Principal Harold Landin at Eisenhower High School. The bridegroom attended Jamestown High School and is employed by Art Metal Construction Company in that city.

To honor the bride-elect, showers were given by Patricia A. Chase, Sugar Grove; Mrs. John Fischer, Sr., Warren; Mrs. John M. Fischer, Conewango Valley.

Mrs. Guifre is enjoying good health, still performs her household duties and enjoys visiting with her friends. She has 8 children, 33 grandchildren and 44 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Charlotte Steele, New York City, is home to spend a two-week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Esper Mason, Pennsylvania avenue, east.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Herron and family left Monday for their home in Ellenburgh, Wash., after a three-week vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, 10 North Marion street, and Mrs. Mary Herron, 96 Pleasant Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilks Clark and son, David, have returned to their home in Detroit, Mich., after a holiday visit with his mother, Mrs. John Lindsey, Mohawk avenue extension.

Lt. and Mrs. Philip Howard, Dover, Del., are spending a 10-day leave with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Jensen, 202 Pioneer street. Other Jensen guests for the Fourth were the Rev. and Mrs. James Cook and children, Homer City; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Anderson and children, Smethport; Mrs. C. A. Anderson and Miss Alice Anderson, Mt. Jewett.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Songer, Sr., North South street, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bednies of Starbuck, have returned home after a delightful month's motor trip to the southwest and west coast to visit relatives and friends. In Arizona, they visited the former couple's son, Ronald, at Yuma Air Force Base. Continuing on to California, they were guests of their brother, Ed Songer, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogren, Pomona, Calif., are her to visit relatives and friends and are making their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Frank Regner, 16 Linwood street.

Religion in the News

By BILL W. DEAN
OMAHA (AP) — Next fall suburban Westside High School will give another trial to a compromise religious program falling somewhere in between "released time" and no official public school recognition whatever of religion.

Under the "released time" formula, schools frequently allow students to spend one hour of school time a week studying religion at classes held by Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic organizations off the school premises.

Development of the procedure has been studded with friction in and out of courts, with opposition based on claims it encroaches on the traditional separation of church and state.

Since a Supreme Court decision in 1952 upholding it, however, the method has become increasingly popular, with an estimated 3% million pupils taking part. Much of the program's growth has occurred in the Eastern states.

The compromise system at Westside has cleared the way for some religious training for its students and at the same time won praise for firmly maintaining separation of church and state.

It works this way: Wednesday is "church day" at Westside, a rambling school in a rapidly growing Omaha area. There are services in nearby churches before classes and Westside teachers are asked to keep Wednesday evenings free of activity. They are also asked to keep Thursdays free of tests that would require Wednesday night study.

"What we are doing is being sure that there is one day a week that students will have a chance to attend their own religious activities if they want to," Supt. C. L. Retelsdorf explains. "We are being very careful that we are not participating in what the churches do with that time."

The Rev. Robert Hupp of Christ the King Catholic Church, about a block away, originally had asked school authorities for released time. School authorities turned down the request. Later, meeting with a group of ministers, they agreed on the present plan.

A relatively few Catholic youngsters are taking advantage of a 7:45 a.m. communion service on Wednesdays. Better attended, reports Father Hupp, is an evening discussion session aimed primarily at providing religious instruction. He says attendance has been around 65 or 70.

At Westside Community Church, next door to the high school, several protestant churches rotate the responsibility of offering a 7:45 a.m. Wednesday morning religious service.

The Congregationalist minister of the church, the Rev. Roger Manners, reports attendance has been light at this inter-denominational service.

Incoming Rotary Head Announces District Assembly

Incoming Rotary president Frank Perrin gave his "key-note" address Monday at the regular meeting in TWCA. He expressed his ideas and hopes for the new Rotary year and announced that the District Assembly would be held at Warren in 1960.

Four-service committee heads announced were: Club, Neil Culbertson; Vocational, Gilbert Buerkle; Community, James Wright; International, Howard Alexander. Sub-committees will be appointed to include all Rotarians.

Mr. Perrin gave a resume of the recent District Conference of Rotary Clubs held in Oil City, May 2 and 3, and also a report on the District Assembly held at Westminster College in New Wilmington for committee chairmen, club directors, club officers. The District Conference was arranged by outgoing District Governor Harry Norbury of Oil City. The Assembly was arranged by In-Coming District Governor Herman Officer of Cambridge Springs - Edinboro Club.

Mr. Perrin emphasized that attendance at the District meetings of Rotary was important to an enlarged appreciation of Rotary program and ideals and encouraged members to attend these functions during the year. District Governor, Herman Officer, will visit the Warren Club on September 15 at which time he will conduct a club assembly and the regular weekly club meeting. Visitors were Dominic J. Cartano, and Frank Bruzell, both Rotarians of Coudersport.

Senate Committee Closely Divided Over Trade Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A closely divided Senate Finance Committee begins today its closed-door consideration of President Eisenhower's reciprocal trade bill. Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) said he hoped the group could finish work on the measure and report it to the Senate floor by Friday. A floor battle is considered certain.

The key questions to be decided in committee appear to be:

1. Whether to grant the full five-year extension of the 24-year-old Trade Agreements Act asked by Eisenhower.
2. Whether to cut down the President's powers to reject Tariff Commission recommendations for quotas or higher rates in escape clause cases under the act.

The House, in acting on the bill, granted the five-year extension along with new authority. Eisenhower requested to cut tariffs an additional 25 per cent.

Hearing Set for Erie Commercial Airlines

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hearings have been set for next week in Erie, Pa., on whether there is enough business to warrant having two commercial airlines between Erie and Detroit.

An investigation was opened Monday by Civil Aeronautics Examiner William Cusick in connection with Allegheny and Mohawk Airlines, both of whom carry passengers between the two cities.

Spokesmen for Erie say they need the service from both carriers.

Airmen Are Flown Back

them on a plane for Wiesbaden, Germany.

There they were to report to the U.S. Air Force European headquarters on their experiences. They were not allowed to talk to newsmen in Tehran and the embassy declined comment except to say they were safe.

Soviet release of the fliers left nine other American military men in Communist hands in Europe. The Soviet East Germans are holding eight Army officers and a sergeant who got lost in a helicopter June 7 and ran out of gas over East Germany.

The nine men held by the Soviets were flying a four-engine cargo plane from Germany to U.S. diplomatic and military missions in Iran and Pakistan. It apparently wandered off course in bad weather June 27 over eastern Turkey. The Air Force said the plane was unarmed.

A. P. DEATH RECORD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Raymond Hackett, 55, veteran stage and screen actor, died Monday of an intestinal ailment. He was the husband of Blanche Sweet, silent film star. He was born in New York City.

HANOVER, N. H. (AP)—Maxim Kopf, 65, internationally known painter and sculptor and husband of columnist Dorothy Thompson, died Monday after suffering a coronary thrombosis. He was born in Vienna and came to the United States in 1923.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Albert E. Idell, 57, one of the most prolific of American authors, died Monday. Idell perhaps was best known for his trilogy concerning New York life in the 80s.

PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—The Rt. Rev. Joseph E. Kardas, 59, of Chicago, bishop of the National Polish Catholic Church, died Monday of an apparent heart attack. He was born in Poland and had served Polish National Catholic churches in Passaic, N. J., Binghamton, N. Y., and Dupont, Pa.

ROSLYN, N. Y. (AP)—Rear Adm. Henry D. Cooke (ret.), 73, a former commandant of the U.S. Naval Academy, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was commander of Atlantic convoys from March 1942 to May 1945.

Higher Pensions Aim Of V.F.W. Convention

PITTSBURGH (AP)—William J. Tepsic, commander of the Pennsylvania Veterans of Foreign Wars, said today that delegates to the state VFW convention will urge Congress to grant monthly pensions of $101.59 to $135.45 to World War I veterans.

Tepsic said the VFW plan would provide a $101.59 pension for World War I veterans after they reach age 62 and a $135.45 pension to those who are helpless or blind.

The four-day state convention gets under way here Thursday.

New Jobless Total Is Soaring Toward Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—A flood of students holding and hunting summer jobs is expected to bring sharp increases in both employment and unemployment in the government's June work survey due today.

The new jobless total may soar to the highest recorded figure since before World War II. June increases were anticipated in the neighborhood of 1½ million from the May figure of 64,061,000 employed and about 500,000 in May's 4,904,000 unemployed.

a committee of three, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mrs. Laura Beckley, and Mrs. Jean Sugerman, to look into the possibility of organizing a group of Candy Strippers at the Warren General Hospital. The principals of all county schools were contacted, and the results were overwhelmingly in favor of just such a project for teen-age girls, with a requisite of being 15 years of age or older.

Mrs. McBride was instrumental in making the first 48 candy stripe uniforms worn by the original group of girls, and has since seen her baby nature and grow into the present organization of 64 girls, with a waiting list of 11. The girls in the Candy Stripe unit are a branch of the hospital auxiliary, and function according to their personal adaptation in different areas of hospital work.

Recently, Mrs. Beckley, chairman of the Candy Strippers, announced that she need no longer make "round-up" speeches at the schools, since applications are left at the school offices, and girls applying to serve as Candy Strippers send the applications to Mrs. Beckley. All girls are carefully screened and are assigned duties in the fields of their particular interests and to which they are best suited. These areas include work in X-ray, pediatrics, emergency, physio-therapy, admissions, snack bar, and notion and card cart.

Several girls who began with the unit in 1956 are active with the Candy Strippers. They are Nancy Lanman and Kay Graham.

Every girl now associated with the Candy Strippers is sponsoring David Heimann in the Derby, and it has been announced that a representative group will march in the parade prior to race time Saturday.

into being indiscreet. They demanded an inquiry by the Justice Department, the FBI and the Washington, D. C., police.

Their statement issued through Harris after a five-hour session also applied to the second big surprise from the Goldfine camp:

Goldfine's bookkeeper, the blonde Miss Mildred Papernan, reported some of her boss' bank records, correspondence and other documents were stolen from her hotel room. The material was brought from Boston for the subcommittee probe but it was not immediately clear how much of it was important to the investigation.

Shacklette acknowledged staying in three different rooms at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel over the past eight days, all next to rooms where Goldfine or his entourage stayed.

But Shacklette swore to the congressmen that he had neither stolen the Goldfine records nor transcribed any confidential information overheard from the Goldfine group. He said what he did hear was not worth recording.

Congress

That authorization bill set ceilings for foreign aid. The pending bill will provide the actual money.

The committee made public Dillon's opening statement.

As the appropriations committee began hearings on the money bill, Senate Democrats divided on the question of whether to override the house cuts.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) called for Senate increases to bring the total near the $3,675,000,000 ceiling fixed in the authorization bill.

Investigators

about the money. But he said no more.

Kennedy said subpoenas have been issued for Joseph Costello, owner of the Ace Cab Co. of St. Louis; John Hager, former driver for the cab company; and Robert E. Barney baker, a reputed aide of Teamster Union President James R. Hoffa.

Hager was the cab driver credited with giving police the tip that led to Hall's arrest. He picked up Hall in St. Louis in October 1953 after Bobby Greenlease had been slain.

Baker reportedly was trustee of the Teamsters cab drivers local in St. Louis during the case.

Army Observation Plane Long Overdue

CAMP DRUM, N. Y. (AP)—An Army observation plane was reported overdue today on a flight from Camp Drum to Harrisburg, Pa.

A spokesman at Camp Drum said the L-20 was based at Ft. Eustis, Va. He did not say how many persons were aboard or give any identities.

In Albany, the Civil Aeronautics Administration said the plane had left Camp Drum, in northern New York, at 6:57 p. m. (EDT) yesterday. A spokesman said the flight to Harrisburg normally would take about 2½ hours. The plane carried a four-hour fuel supply, he said. The CAA spokesman said thunderstorm activity was reported early last night along the route the plane would have taken.

Cleveland Suburb Has New Type Playground

CLEVELAND (AP)—Here's a fun playground where children can live it up:

No swings, gym bars or sand boxes. Instead, it will have a 16-foot sewer pipe, a section of railroad track, a flower garden without an off-limits sign, a play street with traffic signals.

Plans for the experimental playground to be built in suburban Lyndhurst Park by a Kiwanis Club, were presented Monday night to Lyndhurst City Council, which granted permission to use a 150-foot square area in the park.

Work will begin in the fall and be completed by next summer.

Candidate Lawrence Denies Bossism Charge

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"Bossism is a bad thing as such. . . I've never been one," says Mayor David L. Lawrence, Democratic candidate for governor.

Lawrence made the statement in an interview Monday. He had been asked to comment on a remark of Allegheny County Commissioner John M. Walker, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.

Walker said that big city bossism would be among the issues in the election campaign.

One Killed, Another Hurt Near Carlisle

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Two men were killed today in the collision of two tractor-trailer trucks on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near the Newville State Police Barracks.

State police identified the dead as C. John M. Pirkle, 22, of Cumming, R. D. 2, Georgia, and Costello Foxworth, 44, of Philadelphia. Pirkle died almost instantly and Foxworth died a few hours later in Carlisle Hospital.

Foxworth's truck and a 1919 Ford were caught fire after the crash but the blaze was extinguished.

Fayette Man Held for Using Sickle on Son

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A Fayette County man faces grand jury action on charges of assault with intent to kill and aggravated assault and battery in connection with the alleged striking of his four-year-old son, John, with a sickle.

Frank Sofranko of nearby Vanderbilt was ordered held for the grand jury at a hearing Monday night before Justice of the Peace Henry Brocco of Franklin Twp.

The boy was reported in critical condition in Connellsville Hospital with lacerations of the neck.

Running Water in All Classrooms Called Essential

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction said Monday a state rule requiring running water in each elementary school classroom is practical.

He said it was intended to keep children with the classrooms at all times instead of going to other parts of the building for lavatory facilities.

The state official also said that the requirement is not enforced completely if there is a reasonable cause.

Boehm specifically answered the complaints of Dr. Alfred W. Beattie, Allegheny County superintendent of schools, who said the running water requirement resulted in excess plumbing costs in new school construction.

Beattie also objected to a requirement that

Sunray Bombers Make a Good Showing But Are Eliminated in Tournament

Sunray Product Bombers were kept on the run Friday and Saturday as they participated in the Great Lakes Invitational Tournament in Erie. Sunray was eliminated in the semi-final round.

After securing their only win from Buffalo Bobeks 1-0 Bombers were defeated by Cleveland Teamsters, Ohio state champions, by a 4-3 score. Elimination came from the hands of Erie Fulton AC, 1-0.

Sunray became great favorites with the huge gathering present at each game by virtue of their last inning victory over Bobeks, last year's champions in this tournament.

Tied 0-0 entering the last of the seventh, Lou Cummings singled, reached second on a fielder's choice, and scored on an error to give Ken Sorensen a three-hit shutout.

Saturday, Bombers were first beaten by the Cleveland team, which eventually won the tournament. In this contest, Sunray was leading 3-0 on a home run by Cummings when Cleveland came up with four markers in the fifth to win 4-3.

Late Saturday, Joe Wronk of Erie Fulton AC spun a neat three-hitter to defeat Sunray 1-0 and end the Bombers' title hopes.

Hustling Sunray lads were given a tremendous ovation by the capacity crowd of 2,500.

On the strength of their showing, Sunray has been invited to appear in next year's tournament.

General Manager Ned Bartholomew and Manager Joe Muscareo reported today that they are "grateful to Times-Mirror and radio station WNAE for the fine interest and publicity given to them throughout this event."

City given to them throughout this event."

Rickerson Stops Dunkirk Beermen With Four-Hitter

Larry Wilson and Ed (Wink) Rickerson, who normally hold down first-base positions and perhaps are the largest gents in the Inter-City Baseball League, turned in pitching victories over the week-end, both at the expense of Dunkirk.

Big Larry, 6-foot, 3-inch, 235-pounder, overpowered the Beermen Sunday, 5-2, after Rickerson had stopped the same club, 1-0, on four hits Saturday, the win boosting the Warren Rockets into second place.

Barry Drexler scored Warren's lone run after walking and advancing on Joe Kulback's single. With two retired in the second, he lit out for third, stole the base, and crossed on a wild pitch.

17-Year-Old Looks Like Tournament Champion

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — If flaxen-haired Randy Petri, a lanky Texan from Austin, stays in the groove he could become the youngest player ever to win the National Public Links Golf crown.
Petri, 17-year-old son of a stereotypical for the Austin American Statesman, is a corner. Although he has been playing golf only four years, he won the Texas state high school title in 1957 and was runner up this year.
The Stephen F. Austin High School student fired a 39-34-73 to match par over the 6,866 yardage of the gently rolling Silver Lake course Monday to be grouped among the first qualifying round leaders.
The field of 150 pay-as-you-play golfers finish their qualifying test today with the 64 low scorers entering match play Wednesday.

Youngsville National Wins Over Nino 7 to 6

Last Thursday evening, Youngsville National Bank won over Nino's Restaurant 7-6 on Wilder Field in a City Softball League encounter.
John Papaha, pitching his second game of the season, had little trouble until the ninth when a dropped fly ball and wild throw to home gave Nino's three runs and tied the game at 6-6.
In the tenth after one out, Brown singled for his fifth hit, Haight walked, Knight singled and with the bases loaded, Bill Pollard lined a single to score the winning run. Brown paced Youngsville at bat with 5-5, including three doubles and the winning run.
Fred Henry homered in the seventh for Nino's.

Pro Golfers Call Palmer Strongest Since Snead

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—After his smashing victory in the $50,000 Pepsi Championship at Pine Hollow on Long Island, the playing professionals unanimously elected Arnold Palmer as the young golfer most likely to succeed.
They went further than that. They called the 28-year-old Palmer the strongest player since Sam Snead first came around in the mid-1930's.
"Four years ago at the Masters," recalled Jay Hebert, now the official spokesman of the pros, "Gene Sarazen called Palmer the strongest player he had ever seen."
When Hebert finished five strokes behind Palmer's 273, 11 under par, in the Pepsi, the handsome man from the Louisiana bayou told Arnold in congratulating him: "You were so far ahead that the rest of us were playing in our own tournament, and I was fortunate enough to win that one."
"Palmer is just plain long period," said Hebert. "He's a tremendous driver and hits a fairway wood as long as Snead. He hits the ball 230 yards with a No. 1 iron and, boy, that's strong. In addition to his length, he's a wonderful short iron player, goes for the eight-foot circle, not the green. He's a bold putter."

PALMER, WHO PERHAPS came into his own winning this year's Masters, plays what might be called a lashing game. He has unlimited physical endurance and desire. He will hit 500 practice shots a day.
Palmer gives you anything but the impression of a stylish shotmaker with a compact swing which enables him to always be in control of the ball. He has the strength to overcome a weakness, if any, so he simply swats the ball as hard as he can, goes for everything. Yet he hits the ball squarely, which is all that matters, and his swing is not unpretty.
With his bulging biceps, Palmer in some way reminds this ancient observer of Pepper Martin, who covered center field like a tarpaulin and played third base with his chest for the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1930's. Golf, like baseball and boxing, is a game of instinct. The player has no time to think while executing a play or move.

WHEN YOUNG PALMER won the United States Amateur at Grosse Pointe, hard by Detroit, in 1954, there were those who considered him as little more than a kid with bull strength and no real class. I recall John P. English, assistant executive director of the U.S. Golf Association, disagreeing and predicting that the son of the hardest working home pro in Latrobe, Pa., had sufficient early finesse to go on.
Meanwhile, Dick Mayer is taking time out at his old stamping ground, Winged Foot, to try and relocate the beautiful game that won the 1957 U.S. Open and so-called World's Championship at Chicago's Tam O'Shanter.
"I've become swing-conscious," explains Mayer. "I'm playing by manuscript and not naturally. Any time you start thinking about how to take the club back, you're lost."
Arnold Palmer will never get into a situation of that kind—not as long as he keeps lashing away and going for broke. He's too busy making the big shots and finishing in the money.

Onoville Fisticuffer To Be on TV Tonight

An Onoville fighter who compiled an impressive amateur record six years ago is slowly climbing the professional fistic ladder.
Most observers expect the 45,000 seat stadium will be constructed as planned at Candlesick Point, about five miles south of downtown San Francisco. The present schedule calls for its completion by the start of the 1959 season.
The Giants have agreed to play in the new stadium for 35 years and to pay the city a minimum of $125,000 a year, or five percent of their gross revenue, whichever is greater. The city also is to receive all receipts from the 9,000-car parking lot.

Dorothy Roe Says---

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

While Americans make a vogue of Japanese food, fashions and architecture, the modern Japanese girl prefers hamburgers, and wouldn't know how to get around in a kimono. So says Miss Shizuko Ohashi, editor of Japan's leading women's magazine Kurashi-No-Techō (which means "notebook for living").

"I have not worn a kimono in the last 10 years, except once, for a fancy dress ball," youthful Miss Ohashi said through an interpreter. "Older women still wear the kimono at home and in the evening, but most younger women work, and our rush hour in Tokyo is just as crowded as yours in New York. Can you imagine trying to ride the subway in a kimono?"

Miss Ohashi was dressed in a modish pink linen two-piece dress, cut on the latest chemise lines. She is in this country at the invitation of the U. S. State Department, under the educational exchange program, for a brief tour of American publishing plants and editorial offices.

She says the entire status of women has changed in Japan since they won the vote, shortly after World War II.

Most women in Japan make their own clothes, using western patterns, says Miss Ohashi. Few extreme styles are worn, the main goal of the home seamstresses being to turn out neat, practical garments suitable to their working lives.

Japan's great problem is its rapidly increasing population, she says, and for this reason modern Japanese women do not plan big families.

Miss Ohashi has been most impressed by the furnishings and appliances of American homes.

"There is no real furniture in the average Japanese home," she says. "We sleep on mats which are rolled up and put away in the daytime, so that one room can serve many purposes."

There is one more important change in the status of Japanese women, says this modern young editor:

"Before the war, parents arranged almost all marriages. Now we marry for love."

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Amid the rock 'n' roll and show tunes on the best selling list, one record album stands out like a beacon. It is Tennessee Ernie Ford's "Near the Cross."

No stomping beat. No sophisticated lyrics. Just solid, old-fashioned hymns sung with simple reverence.

There's another Ford album among the best seller. It's called "Hymns," and it has been on the list for 78 weeks, a phenomenal record.

Ernie isn't smug about these achievements, but he's certainly happy. They are the result of a steady campaign of his to bring hymns to the mass audience.

"As long as I've been in show business—and that's not very long—I've been trying to promote hymns," he remarked. "It seemed to me that here was a great form of expression that was being overlooked."

"I don't mean it merely for religious purposes. I just felt that it was a crime to overlook these wonderful melodies and the fine messages they convey."

"You just don't know what a battle I had putting them over. When I tried to sing hymns on my TV show, they told me, 'you just can't do it. You can't take your audience when they're 'way up there and bring them 'way down.'"

"Why, that was ridiculous to me. How can you bring an audience down with a hymn? The very nature of hymns is to uplift."

When he finally won his point, the TV minds came up with a big production number to accompany his hymn. Singers and dancers all over the place.

"Now let's just cut out all this gingerbread and just sing the hymn," Ernie declared.

That's the way it was presented, and he continues to do his hymns in a simple manner. The response has been enormous, he said. Viewers are effusive in their praise; many send him stacks of hymn books, even tornout copies of their favorite hymns.

Ernie's hymn-singing goes back to his early days in the Methodist Church of Bristol, Tenn. He and his father were part of a quartet that sang for the old folks' home, the Orphans' Society and prisoners at the jail.

He's of the opinion that folks should do more hymn singing at home. And he feels the urge is there.

FARM NEWS

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Leaders of the nation's farmer cooperatives will study economic integration in agriculture at the 30th annual summer conference of the American Institute of Cooperation Aug. 24-27.

"This is a serious problem facing farmers and their organizations," declared George Myers, secretary-treasurer of the Pennsylvania Assn. of Farmer Cooperatives.

The conference will be held at Pennsylvania State University. More than 2,500 representatives of cooperatives from the United States, Puerto Rico, Canada and other foreign countries will join in discussions at the meeting.

Myers said the question of economic integration in agriculture will be the most pressing one discussed at the meeting.

"This is a problem of agriculture keeping pace with the growth of industry and labor," Myers said.

"Industry and labor, over the years, have been combining into larger and larger units, which makes it possible for them to wield greater and greater bargaining power. The farmer of the past has been unable to keep pace with them," Myers added.

"We must help the farmer integrate his industry so he can keep pace in the economic picture and return to himself a fair share of the nation's income," Myers said.

Economic integration in agriculture usually means organization or agreement between farmers and marketing agents designed to assure the producer of a market and the agent of a source of supply.

Over the years integration has taken many forms, the most common being a simple contract between a producer and a buyer. Since World War II, however, integration has become extremely complex in many farm industries—such as poultry—with the result that farmer interests have often suffered at the hands of an organized market.

"The thing we are concerned about in agricultural organizations is the trend for the farmers' share of the consumer dollar to go down," Myers said.

"If the farmer is to hold the line, he must do it through his own organizations," he noted, adding:

"He can't do it alone. He has to be part of a corporation of his own and make some margin of profit on the processing and distribution of his production."

That's where farmer cooperatives step in. The co-ops act as marketing agents, and, in many cases, as purchasing agents since they can buy farmer production needs — fertilizer, oil, bags — at wholesale prices.
